This copy of ISAAC ALLERTON "MAYFLOWER FAMILIES IN PROGRESS" (MFIP) is not a finished product. It is a printed copy of the current status of four generations of ALLERTON research for the Five Generations Project of the Society of Mayflower Descendants. Research on these four generations and on the fifth generation is continuing at this time. The main purposes of this booklet are: 1) to preserve the research, 2) to ask readers for assistance in providing the missing data, 3) to assist other Project workers, 4) to aid State Historians, and 5) to provide guides for further research. Many of these families carry full primary source documentation, some do not.

All places are assumed to be Massachusetts unless otherwise indicated.

We welcome any additions and/or corrections which are supported by primary source documentation. Any such changes should be mailed to:

ALLERTON MFIP
Mrs. Edith Thomas

Fremont, CA 94539

The General Society of Mayflower Descendants wishes to express its appreciation to the following who have contributed data to this family: John D. Hare; Norma Hare; Carolyn F. Jennett; Ann T. Reeves; Ruth Ann Sherman, FASG; Margaret H. Stover and Neil D. Thompson, FASG.

The General Society of Mayflower Descendants also wishes to thank Newman Hall for his important articles on the Allerton Family in the Mayflower Descendant, Mayflower Quarterly and The Virginia Genealogist.

FIRST GENERATION

1 ISAAC ALLERTON[1] b. England ca. 1586 (depos.); d. New Haven CT bet. 1 Feb. 1658/9 (when he appeared in court) and 12 Feb. 1658/9 (date of inventory.).

He m. (1) Leyden, Holland 4 Nov. 1611 MARY NORRIS of Newbury, England; d. Plymouth 25 Feb. 1620/1.

He m. (2) Plymouth ca. 1626 FEAR BREWSTER, b. England; d. Plymouth bef. 12 Dec. 1634; dau. of Wiliam and Mary (-----) Brewster of the "Mayflower."

He m. (3) poss. Marblehead bef. 1644 JOANNA SWINNERTON who was living New Haven CT 14 May 1680.

Isaac Allerton and his first wife came on the "Mayflower." Bradford said: "Mr. Allerton his wife died with the first, and his servant John Hooke. His son Bartle is married in England but I know not how many children he hath. His daughter Remember is married at Salem and hath three or four children living. And his daughter Mary is married here and hath four children. Himself married again with the daughter of Mr. Brewster and hath one son living by her, but she is long since dead. And he is married again and hath left this place long ago."

On 6 May 1635 it was recorded in the Mass. Bay Colony Records that Mr. "Ollerton" had given to Moses Maverick, his son in law, all his houses, buildings and stages at Marblehead.

On 26 Sept. 1639 Isaac Allerton deposed at Boston calling himself of New Plimmouth aged about 53 years.

Isaac Allerton was called of Newhaven Merchant in a 13 Oct. 1646 letter of attorney.

The inventory of Isaac Allerton taken 12 Feb. 1658/9 was presented in the New Haven court 5 April 1659, his son Isaac being away at the time. Isaac produced his father's will on 5 July 1659 and was appointed to settle the estate, but he relinquished the trust. The will is little more than memoranda of debts due him and owed by him, but names his wife and son Isaac Allerton as trustees and they were to receive "what is overpluss." It mentions "brother Breuster."

On 4 Oct. 1660 Isaac Allerton (the son) granted to his mother-in -law Mrs. Johanna Allerton the house in New Haven where she now dwells during her life and then to his daughter Elizabeth Allerton and her heirs. The deed was not witnessed, so on 10 March 1682/3 Isaac Allerton confirmed the deed.

3 REMEMBER[2] ALLERTON (Isaac[1]) b. Leyden, Holland ca. 1614; d. bet. 12 Sept. 1652 (bp. child) and 22 Oct. 1656 (2nd m.).

She m. bef. 6 May 1635 MOSES MAVERICK, bp. Huish, co. Devon, Eng. 3 Nov. 1611; d. Marblehead 28 Jan. 1685/6, aged 76 years; son of John and Mary (Guy) Maverick. He m. (2) Boston 22 Oct. 1656 Eunice (Cole) Roberts by whom he had Mary, Moses, Aaron and Sarah.

He probably came to New England on the "Mary and John" in 1630 with his father. He was a proprietor at Dorchester in 1633 but was a Freeman at Salem 3 Sept. 1634. He was at Marblehead in 1635; a proprietor there in 1637.

Moses Maverick of Marblehead was called son-in-law of Isaac Allerton in the Records of the Mass. Bay Colony as early as 6 May 1635.

The will of Moses Maverick dated Jan. 1685/6 (but not signed by him) was presented 30 March 1686 but not accepted by the court as some of the children objected. It names wife Eunice; Moses Hawks only surviving child of dau. Rebecca; the four children of dau. Abigail dec. viz.: Samuel Ward, Abigail Hinds, Mary Dallabar and Martha Ward; daughters Eliz. Skinner, Rememb Woodman, Mary fferguson and Sarah Norman; son in law Archebald ffurgeson.

On 29 Sept. 1691 Edward Woodman Senr. of Boston who married Remember Maverick dau. of Moses Maverick late of Marblehead in behalf of his seven children petitioned that Unice be ordered to give an account of her administration.

On 29 Nov. 1698 the estate of Moses Maverick of Marblehead was divided among the widow Eunice Maverick; Archebald ffurgeson in behalf of his children by Mary his wife dec.; John Norman husband to Sarah the only surviving dau.; Moses Hawks, the only son of Rebecca the eldest dau., dec. for himself and in behalf of Wm. Hughes and Thomas Jackson married to Elizabeth and Priscilla Grafton, children of Elizabeth Grafton dec.; Samuel Ward in behalf of himself and his two sisters living and the children of his third and fourth sisters dec., descending from Abigail Ward dec.; Thomas Perkins married to Remember Woodman in behalf of himself and all the children of Remember Woodman dec.

*Isaac Allerton is not named in his father's will. Under the primogeniture in force in Virginia at that time Isaac, if he were living, would have been entitled to a share of his father's estate even if he were not named in the will. There is no record that he shared in the estate and it must be assumed he died childless before his father.
The claim that he lived and returned to New Haven in 1683 was discussed by Horace True Currier in THE ALLERTON FAMILY, Chicago, 1900, pp. 122-4 who admits there is no documentary evidence that John Allerton of Norwich CT, Warwick RI and Coventry RI is a son of Isaac[3] Allerton and that the line is largely based on family tradition that John Allerton was a Mayflower descendant and therefore must be a son of Isaac[3]. This line is repeated in SMALL DESC 2:845 apparently following THE ALLERTON FAMILY.
There is no trace of Isaac[3] Allerton in New Haven or Norwich CT, Warwick RI or Coventry RI - LR or PR.

6 REBECCA MAVERICK[3] (Remember[2] Allerton, Isaac[1]) bp. Lynn 7 Aug. 1639; d. there 4 Nov. 1659.

She m. Lynn 3 June 1658 JOHN HAWKES, b. Charlestown 13 Aug. 1633; d. Lynn 5 Aug. 1694; son of Adam and Ann (Brown?) Hawkes. He m. (2) Lynn 11 Nov. 1661 Sarah Cushman by whom he had Susanna, Adam, Anna, John, Rebecca, Thomas, Mercy and Ebenezer (see #12).

The adm. of the estate of John Hawkes of Lynn was granted to sons John and Thomas on 3 Dec. 1694. On 4 Sept. 1694 the estate was settled between the widow Sarah and sons John, Thomas and Ebenezer Hawkes; son Moses Hawkes land is what grandfather Adam Hawkes willed him; dau. Mercy Hawkes. Elizabeth Hawkes (widow of Adam Hawkes) signed for her son John Hawkes.

Nathaniel Grafton died intestate and Elizabeth brought in an inventory dated 26 (4) 1671 and was appointed admx. The court ordered that she should bring up the children until they came of age, when they should receive their share.

On 17 Nov. 1687 Thomas Skinner of Boston and wife Elizabeth mortgaged property in Boston.

No Suffolk Co. PR for Thomas Skinner.

On 25 June 1695 William Hewes of Boston and wife Elizabeth and Thomas Jackson of Boston and wife Priscilla, only surviving daus. and co-heirs of father Nathaniel Grafton, late of Salem, sold to John Turner of Salem part of their father's estate in Salem.

On 3 Nov. 1698 Thomas Jackson of Boston was appointed guardian of Agnes Skinner, aged 16, dau. of Thomas Skinner and Abigail Skinner under 14.

On 7 Sept. 1698 an order was given to appraise the estate of Captain Samuel Travers, deceased.

The will of Capt. Rawleigh Travers, dated 20 Feb. 1701/2, names "cousins" Elizabeth, Winifred and Rebecca Travers.

On 6 Feb. 1705/6 Elizabeth Travers, daughter of Samuel Travers, dec. petitioned that her father's will was proved in Richmond Co., naming as executors his wife Elizabeth, his daughter Elizabeth and his brother Capt. Rawleigh Travers. The widow died "soon after." Rawleigh died leaving his brother's estate intermingled with his own. Elizabeth, sole surviving executor and now of age, demanded that the executors of her uncle render up to her the unadministrated part of her father's estate. The petition was granted and it was ordered that the estates be divided.

On 17 Feb. 1720/1 Charles Colston and his wife Rebecca and Winifred Travers, unmarried, divided the land Samuel Travers of Richmond Co. devised to his daughters.

The distribution of the estate of Samuel Travers on 17 Feb. 1721/2 was made to the daughters specified in the will of Samuel Travers.

61 JOHN CUSHMAN[4] (Eleazer[3], Mary[2] Allerton, Isaac[1]) b. Plymouth 13 Aug. 1690; living Plympton 9 May 1760.

He m. Plympton 19 Jan. 1715 JOANNA PRATT, b. Plymouth 26 Oct. 1690; living 16 Nov. 1747; dau. of John and Margaret (Kimball) Pratt. The will of John Pratt of Plimpton, yeoman, dated 23 May 1730, names wife Margaret; dau. Joanna, wife of John Cushman and others.

On ----- 1717/8 (date omitted), ack. 11 March 1717/8 John Pratt of Plympton, yeoman, sold to John Cushman of Plymouth, husbandman 106 acres in Plympton. On 28 May 1722 John Cushman, laborer, mortgaged the land and sold off the land in pieces on 27 Feb. 1721/2 and 18 Feb. 1722/3. No wife signed any of the deeds, even though she was alive. No further deeds for John Cushman.

John Cushman became poor and landless and the town frequently had to help him beginning 12 Oct. 1741 and ending 9 May 1760. On 16 Nov. 1747 the town paid his wife's doctor bill and that is the last reference to her.

No Plymouth Co. PR for John or Joanna Cushman.

*The CUSHMAN GEN gives John the three sons listed. Other than the baptism of Eleazer, there is little hard proof, but the children probably do belong to this family.
The CUSHMAN GEN says Eleazer married Abigail Parsons 19 Feb. 1746/7 in Willington CT. Almost certainly that was the son of Thomas and Sarah (Strong) Cushman.
Charles Cushman married Mary Harvey in Bridgewater 10 Dec. 1739.
John Cushman Jr. married Deborah Raymond of Middleborough 3 Feb. 1746 (MD 16:109). The "Jr." does not prove he is a son, but he doesn't seem to belong to the other Cushman families in Plympton, so he is likely a son.
